

Transportation Network

Major Highways

Alamance County has two major Interstates 85 (north/south) and 40 (east/west) which link the Research Triangle Region and the Piedmont Triad Region. Interstates 95 and 77 are approximately 90 miles away.

Ports

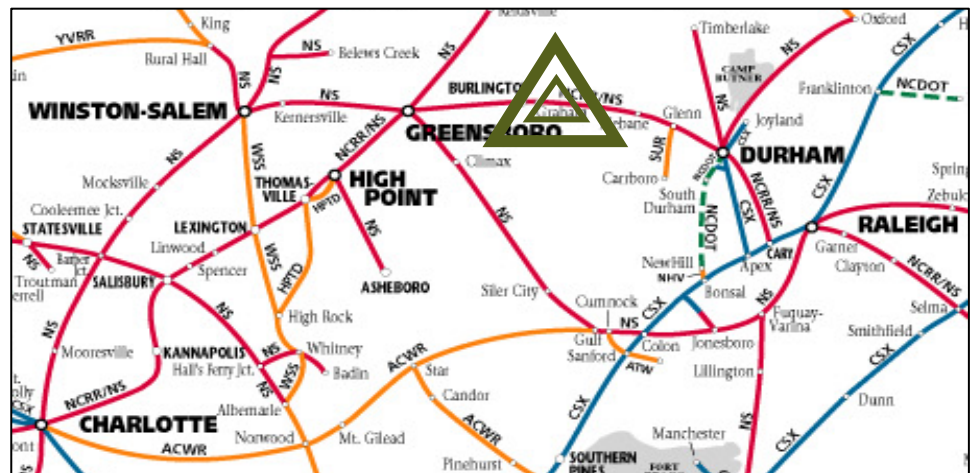

Three modern, deep-water ports provide shipping service to Alamance County along with two inland ports. Inland ports reduce total shipment costs by consolidating individual truckloads. These ports are located in neighboring Greensboro as well as Charlotte. Facilities have warehousing capabilities and rail access.

Deep Water Ports	Miles	Driving Time	Inland Ports	Miles	Driving Time
Wilmington, NC	190	3 hours	Greensboro, NC	30	35 minutes
Morehead City, NC	220	4 hours	Charlotte, NC	114	2 hours
Charleston, SC	320	5 hours

Rail

North Carolina is the hub of an East Coast rail network with 3,600 miles of track throughout the state.

Alamance County is served by Norfolk & Southern Railway and Amtrak.
